 Chaplain; Mrs. J. C. Russell, Guide; Mrs. A. N. St. Louis, Guardian; Don Thomas, Sentinel; A. N. St. Louis, Trustee, for three years. Installation of officers will occur January 6 and Mrs. Noyes of Hardwick D. D. G.
 W. will act as installing officer.
 Refreshments will be served and a pleasant evening is expected.

Church Notes.

Rev. I. P. Booth's topic next Sunday will be "The Twentieth Century Idea of Christ."

Rev. F. L. Davis, pastor of the Cong'l church here, is expected to return the last of the week from his trip to New York.

All the children who are to take part in the Christmas exercises at the M. E. church are requested to meet at the church vestry Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

A sacred concert will be given at the Cong'l church next Sunday evening in place of the usual Christmas exercises. Christmas eve a tree will be arranged in the vestry and a supper given the little folks.

Last Sunday morning the pulpit at the Cong'l church was occupied by Rev. S. P. Cook of Massachusetts, who spoke on the "Forward Movement" in the churches. He was present at a conference of churches held in Hyde Park last Friday, when this line of church work was discussed at length.

Christmas exercises will be held in the Cong'l church, Wednesday evening, Dec. 24. There will be the usual Christmas tree for the Sunday School, and a short cantata, "Santa Claus Busy Day" will be given by a chorus assisted by ten little children. All who take part are requested to meet at the church next Sunday at three o'clock for a rehearsal.

Miss Nan Wombell is assisting in DeWard's store during the holiday rush.

Geo. Olmsted has entered the employ of J. H. Warren, the market man.

Hon. M. W. Terrill of Middletown, Conn., is a guest at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Thomas C. Cheney.

Miss Ella Gilbert is working in the Combination Bargain store for a few weeks. Mrs. Small is also assisting in the store.

A. H. Slayton has purchased the Peck house on Maple avenue of H. A. and E. M. Peck, heirs of the late Charles M. Peck; the writings were drawn yesterday.

A few of the P. A. young ladies gave a cotillion party to about a dozen couples, including the members of the St. Johnsbury basket ball team, in the old post-office last Friday night. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant time is the verdict of all who attended.

The second game of basket ball between the L. C. A. and the P. A. teams will be played at the Morrisville Gymnasium this week-Friday evening.
 This is the return game and would naturally be played at Hyde Park, but played here on account of better accommodation for spectators. It will be a good game and should be liberally patronized. Game called at 8 o'clock; admission 15 cents.

Fire at Elmore.

The house owned and occupied by J. T. Hill, in the town of Elmore, was destroyed by fire Friday morning at about 8 o'clock. Mr. Hill lived alone in the house and the fire which caught from the chimney was not discovered by him until it had gained considerable headway. He was barely able to save $1,000 in cash, which was in his bedroom. Mr. Hill carried insurance to the amount of $650 on the house and content, which covers his loss.

A Good Result.

The W. R. C. realized about $130 from the banquet given the State Grangers and their friends at the Town Hall last Wednesday evening.
 The affair was a pronounced success and much credit is due those who had the management of the event directly in charge. To all who furnished or in any way assisted, the ladies of the W. R. C. wish to extend thanks. The proceeds will make a substantial addition to the monumental fund.

Firemen's Ball.

The Morrisville Fire Company are to give a grand New Year's ball and concert at Town Hall on the evening of January 1. The managers are bound to make this one of the pleasantest events of the season, and are sparing no pains to bring about this result. Young's Orchestra, consisting of eight pieces, has been engaged, which insures the best music obtainable in the state. The full bill is only $2.00, which includes the concert given in the early part of the evening and a supper at the Randall.
 You are cordially invited.

They Didn't Mind.

It is said that the following rather amusing mistake happened during the meeting of the State Grange, which occurred here last week. Landlord Randall, who is always prepared for any emergency, had engaged rooms at private houses and when the number of guests registered exceeded the lodging capacity of the house, the "overflow" was taken care of without the least confusion. Among this number was a young couple who came to town the first day of the meeting and on registering were at-once pointed to a Grangers and escorted to a private house—an arrangement entirely satisfactory to the couple.
 The lady with whom they were domiciled was a trifle puzzled that they did not attend the meetings the first
